

1553
Knyskanes
is given the name
North Cape by the English captain,
R. Chancellor in his search for the sea
route to China.

1594
Dutchman
van Linschoten
makes the first
picture of the cliff,
in copperplate.

1759
Prince Louis Philip
comes to the North Cape when fleeing from the French revolution.

1828
Norwegian
B. M. Keilhau is the first man to climb up
to the plateau
from Hornvika.

1845
The first tourist trip
is arranged with
the steamer
"Prinds Gustav"

1861
German Karl Vogt
starts the tradition of
drinking champagne
at the North Cape.

1873
King Oscar II visit's
the North Cape.

1879
The mail route
starts to go round
the North Cape on
it's way to Vadso.

1984-2004
20 years

THE ROYAL NORTH CAPE CLUB

Nordkapp- diploma

Amedeo Carrocci

visited the North Cape 26 august 2009

and was made member No. 42038

of The Royal North Cape Club, thereby adding yet another item to the North Cape's calendar of events.

Confirmation of this is hereby given.

Cecilie Kjosness
HNOC's Patron

Odd Holmgaard
HNOC's President

1893
The express coastal steamer route is started. Great breakthrough for
tourism.

1898
The first building
on the North Cape:
an octagonal post
office and
champagne shop.

1927
Founding of the Society for the Benefit of the North Cape to preserve the Cape
as a tourist spot
for the future.

1956
Opening of the motor road
from Honningsvåg
to the North Cape.

1958
Completion of
the first building
phase of the
North Cape Hall.

1984
The Royal
North Cape Club
is started.

1988
The North Cape Hall
- built partially inside
the mountainside
opened.

1997
The North Cape Hall
is expanded. The new supervideograf is
presented.